AS MODEL FOR GREAT ARTIST SELECT OKLAHOMA VETERAN

A Choctaw Indian, of Calvin, Oklahoma, who was in that company of United States soldiers which fired the first shots at the Germans, and was near the fighting lines when the last gun was heard, has been chosen by Wewartaux, the French artist, as the model for his painting of the true American fighter. The picture is to hang in the French Federal Building at Paris with those of other Allied soldiers.

Ottis W. Leader trained with the famous Blue Devils when he first went to France, and was almost continuously under fire while he served overseas. At Chateau Thierry, Metz, St. Mihiel, Verdun and Argonne he made a splendid record of bravery, and was cited for his action at Chateau Thierry when for three days he fought with the infantry after the entire gun crew with which he was fighting had been killed, and the gun destroyed. At this time he captured two machine guns and eighteen prisoners.

Today Leader's body is covered with mustard gas burns for which he still has to have medical attention. He isn't sitting down for the rest of his life telling war stories to his children and friends. Not much!

The man who was chosen as the type of true American fighter is still in action. At Oklahoma City

On Sunday at Louisville, the Jefferson Post of the American Legion had a big Americanization Day at the Armory.

The meeting adopted resolutions pledging "our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor" to the maintenance of law and order in the United States. It also voted its special approval of those sections of the resolution asking that naturalized citizens convicted of disloyalty be denaturalized and deported and that while every safeguard should be thrown around the rights of free speech and free assembly, laws should be passed and made effective, to curb revolutionary agitation against the orderly methods of the ballot box.

The meeting also expressed its approval of the bill prepared by Attorney General Palmer to suppress sedition and to deport undesirable citizens. This bill is given below:

A bill defining sedition, the promoting thereof, providing punishment therefor, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the senate and house of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled:

Sedition.

Section 1.—Whoever, with the intent to levy war against the United States, or to cause the change, overthrow or destruction of the government or any of the laws or authority thereof, or to cause the overthrow or destruction of all forms of law or organized government, or to oppose, prevent, hinder or delay the execution of any law or the United States, or the free performance of the United States Government or any one of its officers, agents or employees or its or his public duty, commits, or attempts or threatens to commit, any act of force against any person or any property, or any act of terrorism, hate, revenge, or injury against the person or property of any officer, agent, or employee of the United States, shall be deemed guilty of sedition, and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $10,000, or by imprisonment, for a period not exceeding twenty years, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Promoting Sedition.

Sec. 2.—Whoever makes, displays, writes, prints or circulates, or knowingly aids or abets the making, displays writing, printing, circulating of any sign, word, speech, picture, design, argument or teaching which ifies any act of sedition as hereinbefore defined, or organizes or assists, or joins in the organization of, or becomes or remains a member of, or affiliates with, any society or organization, whether the same be formally organized or not, which has for its object, in whole or in part, the advising, advocating, teaching or justifying of any act of sedition as hereinbefore defined, shall be deemed guilty of sedition and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding ten years, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 3.—Any alien who shall be convicted under any of the provisions of this act shall, at the expiration of his sentence, be taken into custody under the warrant of the secretary of labor and deported in the manner provided by the immigration laws of the United States then in force, and said alien shall forever thereafter be debarred from again entering the United States or any territory or possession thereof.

Denaturalization and Subsequent Deportation.

Sec. 4.—The conviction under any of the provisions of this act of any naturalized citizen shall be deemed sufficient to authorize the cancellation of his or her certificate of naturalization in the manner provided by section 15, of the Naturalization Act of June 29, 1906. It shall be the duty of the United States Attorney where said naturalized citizen is held in custody or resides to institute and conduct such proceedings immediately on the entry of final judgment of conviction. Upon the cancellation of the certificate or naturalization the alien shall become subject to the provisions of Section 26 of this act.

Sec. 5.—The Department of justice shall furnish the secretary of labor such data as will enable him at the proper time to effect the deportation of those made subject thereto by the provisions of this act.

Henry DeHaven Moorman, state commander of the Legion has appointed the following committee to have charge of legislation effecting the Legion in Kentucky: M. K. Gordon, Madisonville; Jackson Morris, Pineville; Atilla Cox, Louisville; Elmer Gray, Newport, and James Breathitt, Jr., Hopkinsville. It is known that the legionnaires in Kentucky will seek state as well as national laws against alien agitators.

A Christmas Greeting!

To Our Patrons and The Public

Christmas, the season for the renewal of old friendship for the expression of good will, and the doing of kindness to others is here.

May your Christmas be filled with joy and happiness, unmarred by sorrow, and may you carry with you through the coming year the spirit of the Yuletide.

Again—A Merry Christmas
